

Contact:
Waltrina Middleton
C. Shelby Rooks Society
Chicago Theological Seminary
wmiddleton@ctsichicago.edu
Phone: 773-273-9254

5757 S. University Blvd.
Chicago, IL 60637
Phone 773-752-5757
www.ctsichicago.edu

Charles Shelby Rooks Society of
Chicago Theological Seminary

Press Release

Reverend Dr. Marvin McMickle of Antioch Baptist Church of Cleveland, OH will address Hyde Park Seminarians, Wednesday, February 03. The event is FREE and open to the public.

Lunch and Book Signing to Immediately Follow Service.

CHICAGO, IL, February 03, 2010: Prominent pastor and author, Rev. Dr. Marvin McMickle will preach on the theme “Where Have All the Prophets Gone?” at Chicago Theological Seminary’s Graham Taylor Chapel, 12 noon, February 03. The theme for the service is inspired by McMickle’s book of the same name (Pilgrim Press, Cleveland).

The service, sponsored by the Charles Shelby Rooks Society, a campus based student organization of Chicago Theological Seminary, is free and open to the public. Books authored by Rev. McMickle will be available for purchase and signing by author during lunch to immediately follow service. Local vocal and spoken word artists will participate in event.

Graham Taylor Chapel is located at 5757 S. University Boulevard, Chicago, 2nd floor, above the Seminary Coop Bookstore. For wheelchair access or assistance, please call (773) 752-5757.

The Charles Shelby Rooks Society honors the memory of the first African-American president to lead a predominantly white theological school. The student organization celebrates Diasporic ties to Africa, academic excellence, cultural, community, spiritual and social cognizance and activism. Dr. Charles Shelby Rooks was committed to theological education and the public responsibility of the church. A consistent advocate for the training of African American church leaders, Rooks brought renewed vision of mission and relationship to the local church.

For Immediate Release and Distribution.