Security Transfer Instructions

Securities held at a bank or brokerage account or in certificate form are generally accepted for transfer and investment with Chicago Theological Seminary's endowment account or a Planned Giving account at United Church Funds (UCF). Mutual fund shares must be liquidated and the proceeds remitted for investment. UCF staff will assist you with this transfer and may suggest additional procedures.

Please contact our Planned Giving Associate, Milly Hernandez, with your intent to make such a transfer, including the security name, CUSIP and number of shares or principal.

Please find below some additional guidance on security transfers:

- Securities held at a bank or brokerage account will require the assistance of UCF staff, working with you and our custodian bank, to complete this transfer. We may suggest additional procedures necessary for transfer.
- Securities held in Certificate Form and any supporting required paperwork will be processed upon receipt of a copy for our verification and will be confirmed with our custodian bank.
- Mutual Fund accounts held by members of Chicago Theological Seminary must be liquidated by your local broker, with the resulting cash balance remitted for the planned gift.
